Franklin Community High School's Athletic Director Named AD of the Year

Indianapolis (August 3, 2006) — Noel Hemminger was named Outstanding Athletic Director of the Year at the Indiana Athletic Trainers Association Awards Banquet on July 14, 2006. Noel, who has served 12 years as athletic director at Franklin Community High School, received this award in light of his enthusiastic, positive attitude and dedication to the athletic training profession. An athletic trainer who nominated Noel for this award expressed his appreciation by noting, "His [Noel's] biggest concern is the well-being of the student-athlete. He really allows me to do my job and run the athletic training room as I see fit."
