ProCare Athletic Trainer Honored with Distinguished Service Award

Indianapolis (July 27, 2006) — Scott Gull received the Distinguished Service Award at the Indiana Athletic Trainers Association (IATA) Awards Banquet on July 14, 2006. Scott currently serves as the Out-Patient Rehabilitation Manager and a Staff Physical Therapist Assistant at ProCare Rehabilitation Services of Community Hospital in Anderson. He received this award in light of his continued support and contributions to athletics in Indiana, the IATA, and the athletic training profession. For the past 8 years, Scott has chaired the IATA Summer Symposium. The athletic trainer who nominated Scott for this award commented on Scott's involvement in the IATA Summer Symposium. "He (Scott) has coordinated and implemented the setup of speakers and facilities on a yearly basis to ensure the meeting has become a quality hands-on experience for our members."

About the IATA- The Indiana Athletic Trainers Association was founded in 1984 and currently has over 1,000 members. The IATA is committed to providing quality healthcare for Hoosiers and strives to advance the profession of athletic training. Practicing in a variety of settings from hospitals and clinics to universities and professional sports, IATA members work with Hoosiers age 1-100. To learn more about the IATA and the profession of athletic training, please visit our website at: www.iata-usa.org.
