Local Doctor Named Team Physician of the Year

Indianapolis (August 3, 2006) — John Forchetti, MD, was named the Physician of the Year by the Indiana State Medical Association’s Commission on Sports Medicine at the Indiana Athletic Trainers Association (IATA) Awards Banquet on July 14, 2006. This award was presented to him by Dr. Robert Wylie, the 2005 recipient of the Physician of the Year award. Dr. Forchetti has been the Duneland School Corporation physician consultant since 1972 in addition to his numerous responsibilities as a local cardiologist. The athletic trainer who nominated Joe for this award stated, “One of the greatest assets of having a cardiologist like Dr. Forchetti as a team physician has been the ability to expedite care for an athlete who has a cardiovascular problem. His soft-toned manner and style has calmed and reassured many parents over the years.”

About the IATA- The Indiana Athletic Trainers Association was founded in 1984 and currently has over 1,000 members. The IATA is committed to providing quality healthcare for Hoosiers and strives to advance the profession of athletic training.
